Dear Sir,

Sub: Non-acceptance of the Rating assigned to Can Fin Homes Limited

This has reference to the revised rating of Non-Convertible debentures, downgrading it from 'IND AAA' with outlook negative to 'IND AA' outlook stable, based on the proposed stake sale by Canara Bank. In this regard, we would like to reiterate the following positives of the Company:

- CFHL has an Independent Board with learned and experienced members and the decisions of the Management are as per the policies and guidelines duly approved by the Board. Canara Bank, being a promoter, have their representatives on the Board.
- CFHL enjoys financial support from various banks like State Bank of India, HDFC Bank, Syndicate Bank, Corporation Bank, etc. apart from Canara Bank.
- The Company has un-availed documented Bank lines to the extent of INR 28 billion as on September 30, 2019 (INR 47 billion as on date), which denotes comfortable liquidity position of the Company.
- Diversified resource profile (52% from Banks, 13% from NHB, 18% from NCDs, 15% from Commercial papers and 2% from public deposits).
- The stability and capability of the Company is evidenced by its proven track record and granular loan book.
- Other favourable aspects are healthy portfolio, stable incremental quarter on quarter growth, including Earnings and Profits, ever improving spread and NIM.
- Negligible exposure towards the construction (Builder) finance.
- Asset quality is one of the best in the industry.
- The other added positives are good geographical presence across the country, continuous expansion, improving the fee based income from Insurance, both life and non-life.

The Company has been enjoying the confidence and support of investors on its strengths over the past three decades. Therefore, the Company deserves a better rating. Please record our non-acceptance of the rating published on 18/12/2019.

For Can Fin Homes Limited
