Preface

The Company has adopted the Code of conduct for the directors and employees, which lays down the principles and standards that should govern the actions of the directors and employees. Any Actual or potential violation of the code, howsoever insignificant or perceived as such would be a matter of serious concern of the Company.

The Company is committed to adhere to the highest standards of ethical, moral and legal conduct of business operations. To maintain these standards, the company encourages its employees and stakeholders, who have concerns about suspected misconduct to come forward and express these concerns without fear of unfair treatment or punishment.

The Whistle Blower/ Vigil Mechanism to be revisited periodically to incorporate the amendments to the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 related rules and Regulation 22 of SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015, or such other Acts/regulations, as applicable and as amended from time to time.

1. Objective

This policy aims to provide an avenue for its employees to raise concerns about unethical behavior, actual or suspected fraud or violation of Company's Code of Conduct, violations of legal or regulatory requirements, incorrect or misrepresentation of any statements, reports, etc.

Whistle blower policy intends to cover serious concerns that could have grave impact on the operations and performance of the business of the Company.

2. Scope

The primary focus of the policy aims at building a successful whistle blower mechanism, the one which is fair, non-vindictive and easily accessible to all, so that the frauds/ potential frauds are detected and controlled at a nascent stage. It also provides for adequate safeguard against victimization of directors or employees or any other person who avails the mechanism and also provide for direct access to the chairperson of the Audit Committee in appropriate/exceptional cases.

This policy covers actual or suspected malpractices, illegal activities and instances as indicated below and allows whistle blower, to report the same to the Audit Committee;

- Misrepresentation of facts or falsification of records/ reports of the company;
- Misuse of Company Assets/Funds (E.g. Forged bills, personal use of company assets etc.);
- Pilferation of confidential information to advance personal interests;
- Dual employment directly or indirectly affecting the interest of the company;
- Misuse of customer's money in any form (E.g. taking unauthorized money/gifts or offer of entertainment from customers etc.);
- Any undue favour to the customer for personal gains (E.g. Forging of documents, deliberately hiding important facts etc.);
- Misusing/taking advantages of functional procedural lapse including misrepresentation of the facts;
- Indulgence in any unlawful act involving violation of any criminal/civil law/ legislations;
- Breach of Company Policies;
- Dangerous Practices likely to cause physical harm/damage to any person/property;

- Manipulation of Company's data/records;
- Abuse of power or authority for any unauthorized or ulterior purpose;
- Unfair discrimination, coercion, harassment in the course of employment or provision of service.
- Offering or accepting a bribe
- Engaging in or threatening to engage in detrimental conduct against a person who has made a reportable concern or is believed or suspected to have made or be planning to make a reportable concern.

3. Purpose

(1) The Company resolutely believes that its employees are the greatest assets and their feedback and suggestions are valued highly. However, there could be some deterrents that may stop an employee from reporting their concern / violation directly and therefore in such scenario it is very vital for the Company to remain approachable and vigilant at all times. The purpose of this policy is to provide a framework to promote responsible and secure whistle blowing. It aims to provide an avenue for its employees to raise concerns about unethical behavior, actual or suspected fraud or violation of Company's Conduct Rules, violations of legal or regulatory requirements, abuse of power and authority, incorrect or misrepresentation of any statements, reports, etc.

(2) The main emphasis is on building a successful whistle blower mechanism, the one which is fair, non-vindictive and easily accessible to all, so that the frauds / potential frauds are detected and controlled at a nascent stage. It also provides for adequate safeguard against victimization of directors or employees or any other person who avails the mechanism and also provide for direct access to the chairperson of the Audit Committee in appropriate/exceptional cases

(3) Whistle blower policy intends to cover serious concerns that could have grave impact on the operations and performance of the business of the Company.

(4) The policy neither releases employees from their duty of confidentiality in the course of their work, nor is it a route for taking up a grievance about a personal situation.

(5) Every complaint under the policy be investigated with the same importance whether it is from the employees or otherwise and there should not be any preconceived notions against the complainant or the person(s) against whom complaint is made.
